This is Jaaka the fisherman from Naminya.

He fishes on the river Nile.

He has a boat, fishing net and a hook.

He always wakes up very early in the morning to catch the Nile perch.

At around 10am, he's selling his catch in Jinja central market.

Jaaka what happened?
Was it a loss? He's so sad.

“Today the situation is bad. The Nile breeze did not permit me to fish. And one perch swam away with my hook.”

“But I have hope that tomorrow will be good, because I’ve bought a new hook.”
