Cultural Identity Tree

Instructions: Draw your own cultural identity tree, then use the suggestions below to write down and include different parts of your identity in your artwork.

Sky: what you are grateful for (people, things, places, etc)

Fruit: your major accomplishments, gifts people have given you (e.g., support and kindness) and gifts you've given to others, traditions that inspire you

Leaves: what you love about yourself, what you are most proud of, how others would describe your strengths

Branches: your hopes and dreams, new directions that you would like to take, such as how you would like to help your family, school, and community

Trunk: who you are in this world, your personality and interests, a fun fact about you

 Ground: what gives you joy and hope, what you do in everyday life (at school, home, or with friends)

Roots: your name and where you come from, the name of your city/town, traditions that are important to you and your loved ones
