

Battles - The Eastern Front

This section contains details of the significant battles and actions fought on the Eastern Front during the First World War. Included is perhaps the war's most sweepingly successful victory at Tannenberg in August 1914, which ended with the Russian commander Samsonov committing suicide.

Also included are critical encounters at Stalluponen and at Masurian Lakes.

Engagement	Date
Battle of Stalluponen	Opened 17 August 1914
Battle of Gumbinnen	Opened 20 August 1914
Battle of Tannenberg	Opened 26 August 1914
First Battle of the Masurian Lakes	Opened 9 September 1914
Battle of Bolimov	Opened 31 January 1915
Second Battle of the Masurian Lakes	Opened 7 February 1915
Battle of Lake Naroch	Opened 18 March 1916
Battle of Lutsk	Opened 4 June 1916